4. Could we use the previous session's application form for the current session?

Please use the current form pertinent to the upcoming session

5.What to bring/not to bring on the day of examination (smartphones/watches etc.,)?

- Smart watches and phones are not allowed inside the exam hall.
- Please bring necessities for an exam like pens, stationery, water bottles etc.

6. Has the exam pattern/format changed?

More multiple-choice questions are being introduced by France Education International, instead of open-ended questions. This update is expected to happen over several months. FEI sets the question paper, and hence we will not be able to confirm the pattern in advance.

7. When will the results be published? If published, where to check? When will we get the certificates?

The results will be published approximately one month after the exams, on our website as well as in our premises. The original certificates issued by FEI will be available in about 4 months. Candidates will receive email confirmations both when the results are published and when the certificates are made available.

8. I have already written a specific DELF exam, and I have cleared. Would I be able to write again to score more?

Yes, candidates can reapply for an exam already cleared.

9. I have not cleared the exam. How to obtain my marks in each category?

You will not be able to receive a mark sheet, but to know the marks you may send an email to coursecounsellor@af-madras.org

10. What is the value of the certificate I get?

The exams levels are as per the CEFR course structure. The certificate issued by FEI under the French Ministry of Education is recognized worldwide and has lifetime validity.

11. Is food available at/near the centre? Accommodation?

A canteen is available within the campus that only offers snacks and refreshments. Candidates need to organize food or accommodation by themselves.

12. Is there a waiting area for those accompanying the students?

Yes, the open atrium or other public spaces within the premises are designated waiting areas.
