

The Angoulême International Comics Festival is the main French-speaking comics festival and did you know that it is the second-largest comics festival in Europe, and the third-largest in the world?. It takes place every year in January and to celebrate the occasion, the Library of Alliance Française of Madras is delighted to present the Comic Strip Competition 2024.

Go ahead and bring out the comic artist in you. Here are some tips and tricks to win the competition and be rewarded.

- This is an open theme competition that is free and open to all.
- Each participant is allowed to send only one submission. Group submission is not allowed.
- The strip should have a minimum of 3 panels and maximum of 5.
- The strip should be in French. It should be readable and logically coherent from left to right.
- The use of offensive or improper language is strictly prohibited.
- Since plagiarism doesn't have any room in our competition, kindly send your original works.
- We will only accept submissions via email to librarian@af-madras.org between 10:25 AM on 27th January (Saturday) and 5:45 PM on 29th January (Monday).
- If the comic is in hard copy then the participants are requested to scan and send it via email.
- You will NOT be allowed to change your submission once we receive it.
- During submission, kindly include,
 - 1) Your Full Name
 - 2) Your Contact Number
 - 3) Your Email Address
- Short-listed entries will be published on our Instagram page and the winners will be rewarded.

Bonne chance!!!
